Learning On Vacation

The curriculum is designed to expose our students to a wide range of new options, new activities and new possibilities. Our experienced team of teachers and specialists provide instruction, guidance and individualized attention, while encouraging participation. Weather dependent, activities are scheduled indoors and outdoors and are rotated throughout the seasons.

Core activities (in bold below) are offered throughout the LOV and Full Day programs, along with a rotation of electives based on parent interest and other group-organized activities. Each child's time is personally designed to focus on his or her unique interests and abilities, maximizing development and exciting curiosity.
